PEACE CONFERENCE OPENS SESSIONS IN FRENCH CAPITAL.

The supreme council of the peace congress, consisting of President Wilson and the Premiers and Foreign Ministers of the four great powers, Great Britain, France, the United States and Italy, met at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the French Foreign office, in Paris, France, for the first formal exchange of views and to make arrangements for the procedure of the conference, at which the full delegation will be present.

The meeting was chiefly interesting in its personal aspects—the bringing together for the first time in contact of the world's best known statesmen, who are now the guiding figures of the congress. The scene as they assembled was one of unusual activity.

Marshal Foch was the first of the plenipotentiaries to arrive. Soon after Foch came Robert Lansing, the American Secretary of State, accompanied by his military aide, who was followed by Mr. Frazier, counselor of the American embassy, who is now attached to the personnel of Colonel House.

At just 2:45 p.m., President Wilson's car swung up to the entrance. The President was accompanied by Mrs. Wilson and was greeted with "Vive Wilson." With the President and his wife was Admiral Grayson, the President's physician.

As Mr. Wilson entered the vestibule of the foreign office, Stephen Pichon, the French Foreign Minister, stepped forward to greet him and escorted him into his private office, where the conference was held.

M. Clemenceau, the French Prime Minister, followed. Signor Orlando, the Italian Premier, came soon afterward, accompanied by Signor Sonnino, his Foreign Minister.

The last to arrive was David Lloyd George, the British Prime Minister, and Arthur J. Balfour, the British Foreign Secretary, who motored up together.

In addition to the chief factors announced above were M. Leygues, the French Minister of Marine, M. Clemenceau, Minister of Commerce, and M. Loucheur, Minister of Industrial Construction.

The conferences opened promptly at 3 o'clock. From the offices of M. Pichon, the vista was over the gardens of the Foreign Ministry.

The meeting was an extended one. It was mainly for the purpose of settling new terms for prolonging the armistice, which expires January 17, and for determining the number and

PARIS MAY GET CAPTURED GERMAN CANNON.

In the House at Washington, Tuesday, Representative J. Campbell Cantrill, of the Seventh Congressional District, introduced House Bill No. 13760, which was referred to the Committee on Military Affairs, and ordered printed. The bill relates to the donation by the War Department of two cannon or field-pieces captured from the German army. The cannon are to be used as ornaments on the court house lawn in Paris. The bill reads as follows:

"Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of War be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to donate to the town of Paris, Kentucky, two cannon or field-pieces captured by the American Army from the forces of the Imperial German Government during the present war."

NURSES IN DEMAND.

Due to a spread of the influenza and pneumonia in surrounding cities and counties, nurses are in demand everywhere. Appeals have been coming in to Paris from Cynthiana, Kentucky, two cannon or field-pieces captured by the American Army from the forces of the Imperial German Government during the present war."

IN THE SERVICE OF THEIR COUNTRY.

Private William Warren White, Jr., who has been stationed at Ft. Caswell, near Cape Fear, North Carolina, has received his final discharge papers, and is now at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. White, at the Pinecrest Apartments.

The first Bourbon county colored soldier to be reported as being wounded overseas is Private Will Clay, son of Mrs. Betty Clay, of Rockville. He was sent overseas from Camp Taylor, at Louisville. The extent of his injuries has not been learned here.

Miss Mary C. Armstrong, of Lexington, a former Millersburg girl, has returned to France, to continue her work this time in the canteen service. Miss Armstrong's ability as a musician makes her a valuable addition to the entertainment force of the Y. M. C. A. "overseas."

Advices were received here last week by Mrs. Maggie Culbertson, from the war department at Washington, that her son, Private King Culbertson, of Paris, had been wounded in action overseas on November 11, the degree of the wound being undetermined. Culbertson is a brother of Earl Culbertson and a nephew of Jos. Williams, of Paris.

Among recent visitors in Paris was Private Lee McGahan, who is in the service at Camp Knox, where the Government is building the largest artillery camp in the world. Private McGahan is a native of Ewing, and a former newspaper man, having been connected with papers in Paris, Ewing and Cynthiana. He represented Fleming county in the last session of the Legislature.

Lieut. R. Davis Hutchcraft, who is stationed in the service at one of the big army cantonments in the State of Washington, is a guest of his mother, Mrs. J. Perry Hutchcraft, in Paris. Lieut. Hutchcraft was transferred to the Pacific Coast station from a Florida army post, and also promoted to Lieutenantcy. He was in the newspaper business at Tampa, Florida, at the outbreak of the war. Mrs. Hutchcraft will join him here for a visit in a few days.

Relatives and others in this city have received information to the effect that Private Charles N. Hatfield, formerly of this county, had been seriously wounded in one of the big battles in France. The news in the shape of a telegram from the War Department at Washington. No details were given. Hatfield resided near Clintonville, this county, where he had been engaged in farming. He had been in active service overseas for several months.

Private Jos. Spencer, of the North Middletown vicinity, who is at home on a furlough from Camp Taylor, has had the influenza, and is now ill with double pneumonia. It was reported yesterday that his cousin, Edward Spencer, had been killed on the battlefield in France, but this news has not been confirmed. Private Sherman Jeannett, of the same vicinity, who has been at Camp Taylor, arrived home Saturday, having received his final discharge papers.

Jakie Saloshin, of Paris, who has been in the U. S. army service at the Vancouver Cantonment, has arrived at Camp Taylor, in Louisville, where he is awaiting his final discharge papers. Mr. Saloshin telephoned his mother, Mrs. Louis Saloshin, in this city, yesterday, that he expected to be home about Thursday or Friday. Jakie says the other "Bourbon county misfits" in the cantonment are well and hoping to return to Paris soon.

James Everman, son of Mrs. J. A. Gilkey, of Paris, is here on a visit to his mother, and other relatives. Young Everman, who entered the service early in the war, is stationed on the U. S. battleship, the Texas, one of the biggest of Uncle Sam's fleet. He will be here until Thursday, when he will leave for Cuba to spend the remainder of the winter. Everman made an address at the North Middletown Christian church Sunday evening to a large audience, there being no services at the church that night. He is a native of North Middletown.

THE TOBACCO MARKETS

Tobacco sales have been remarkably high on all the markets the past week, and both crop and sales averages have encouraged the growers, who are now preparing for the next season's crop. Total sales, averages and amounts on the breaks at this time exceeds any previous record at Paris, Winchester, Mt. Sterling and all the Central Kentucky markets.

The tobacco has thus far appeared on the markets in prime condition. The pinhooker has had a hard time of it trying to get basket owing to the high prices prevailing. All the big manufacturers are represented here and the bidding has been spirited and the demand strong. Prices have ruled high on the Paris market especially.

During the week a total of 320,275 pounds was sold at the Independent House for a money value of $112,219.14, an average of $35.04. For the season they have sold a total of 992,670 pounds for a total money value of $328,099.07, a floor average of $33.06. For the season the sales at the Bourbon Tobacco Warehouse Co.'s houses aggregated 2,028,810 pounds, representing a money value of $720,443.24, a floor average of $35.06.

Yesterday's market was a banner sale for the Bourbon Tobacco Warehouse Company, when a total of 298,840 pounds of tobacco was sold for a total of $120,137.78, an average of $40.20 per hundred. The crop averages ranged from $32.20 up as high as $63.07, which was realized for a crop of 3,070 pounds grown by McDonald & Jacobs. Some of the best crop averages follow:

Stewart & Han, 4,990 pounds, average $60.53.

J. O. Evans & Son, 1,500 pounds, average $36.74.

Hancock & Thompson, 17,685 pounds, average $53.06.

Wiedemann & Ingels, 2,620 pounds, average $37.46.

Woodford & Case, 3,485 pounds, average $44.95.

Mastin & Lanter, 3,900 pounds, average $43.27.

Caywood & Fletcher, 8,315 pounds, average $50.33.

Crouch & McClaxon, 4,620 pounds, average $47.71.

Johnson & Thurman, 7,975 pounds, average $38.49.

Layson & Dickson, 2,410 pounds, average $56.94.

Clay & Tobin, 8,075 pounds, average $40.18.

McMurry, 3,395 pounds, average $51.76.

Ike Rankins, 640 pounds, average $45.25.

Conyers & Leggett, 3,395 pounds, average $33.27.

Ray & Sellus, 2,820 pounds, average $39.41.

T. M. Sellus, 2,730 pounds, average $32.20.

Wiedemann & Sybes, 2,290 pounds, average $35.77.

Buckner & Osborne, 1,400 pounds, average $33.94.

Kenney & Mattox, 10,900 pounds, average $45.50.

Grimes & Johnson, 3,10 pounds, average $40.99.

Buckner & Marsh, 11,770 pounds, average $50.11.

Doty & Roberts, 3,410 pounds, average $32.05.

John S. Hawkins, 4,250 pounds, average $44.19.

Mrs. Evans Jacoby, 2,705 pounds, average $33.97.

Wagner & Herrington, 2,090 pounds, average $31.03.

McDonald & Jacobs, 750 pounds, average $34.66.

Marsh & Dan, 2,630 pounds, average $35.84.

B. L. Yates, 930 pounds, average $31.73.

Bryant & Myers, 2,170 pounds, average $43.03.

Burke, Brent & Napier, 8,179 pounds, average $51.39.

Holt & Henderson, 6,785 pounds, average $44.22.

Tarr & Sweeney, 2,810 pounds, average $61.95.

Burris & Lee, 905 pounds, average $45.12.

BURNED IN EXPLOSION OF GASOLINE LAMP.

Mrs. S. S. Ardery, of Seventh street, is in receipt of a copy of the Baltimore Sun, containing a long article descriptive of Edgewood Arsenal, where her son, John Ardery, of Paris, is employed as chemist. While at work in the chemical department some time ago Mr. Ardery was slightly injured by the explosion of some chemicals, but was confined to the hospital only a short time. The article tells incidents of soldier-workers in the chemical department being "gassed" by their own chemicals. The men are employed in various capacities—filling gas shells, making mustard gas, working in refrigerating plants where the shells are passed through to chill before being filled, etc. It is the largest poison factory in the world. There are three hundred acres in the tract, guarded along its entire area by soldiers, in uniform and by wire fences. It is really a collection of big manufacturing plants, with all that implies of housing,

NEWS OF PARIS BOY'S DEATH REACHES PARENTS AFTER SIX MONTHS.

After a lapse of six months, during which time they alternated between hope and despair, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Cain, of this city, received official confirmation of the death of their son, James Cain, from wounds received in one of the big battles in France, on July 26.

Young Cain's father, Mr. John (Peter) Cain received the news in the shape of an official telegram from Adjutant-General Harris, of the War Department, at Washington, to the effect that James Cain had been killed in battle in France on July 26.

Young Cain's father, Mr. John (Peter) Cain received the news in the shape of an official telegram from Adjutant-General Harris, of the War Department, at Washington, to the effect that James Cain had been killed in battle in France on July 26.

James Cain was twenty-three years old. He left Paris with one of the first details of Bourbon county draftees for Camp Zachary Taylor, reporting at the camp on Sept. 22, 1917. As he was marching with the others up Main street some one asked him the question, "Jimmie, what are you going to do when you get to France?" His answer, straight from the shoulder, was, "I'm going to fight for Uncle Sam. What would you think I would be going over there for?" This was typical of his spirit and determination.

After a course of intensive training at Camp Zachary Taylor, Cain was sent to an Eastern port, from where he embarked for the battle front in France.

Soon after his arrival there his parents received several letters from him, and heard from him regularly up to the latter part of last June. Since that time no word had come from him, and his friends and relatives, after exhausting every means of learning something of his fate, became reconciled to the belief that he had been killed or was a prisoner in some German camp.

It has seemed difficult for them to understand why it has taken six months to get definite news concerning him.

Jimmie Cain was possessed of a jovial disposition, and was a big-hearted and popular young man. Whatever his faults they are now lost in the fact that he has died in the defense of the cause of democracy and his name will be honored among the Bourbon county boys who have fallen on the battlefield of the Old World.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Cain, one sister, Miss Helen Cain, and three brothers, John Cain, Jr., Thos. Cain and Robt. Cain, all of Paris.

CHANGE IN OFFICE FORCE AT PARIS GAS & ELECTRIC CO.'S OFFICE.

Mrs. John W. Duvall, who has been the efficient cashier at the office of the Paris Gas & Electric Co., has tendered her resignation to take effect on January 15. Mrs. Duvall has been holding this position for a number of years, and it is with regret that the company and general public accept her resignation. Miss Ruth Soper will fill the place vacated by Mrs. Duvall.

Mr. Julian Howe has also resigned as bookkeeper for the company. His place will be filled, it is understood, by a gentleman from Danville.

Mr. C. L. Steenbergen, the faithful and efficient Manager, will still be in charge of the company's business.

Death of Roosevelt.

The mortal remains of this pre-eminent American were consigned to their last resting place last week, but his name and his deeds will be written indelibly upon the history of the ages.

No man in American history had such a versatile mind—no man such a cosmopolitan career. His great mind was interested in every phase of human endeavor. His active career led him through almost innumerable lines of activity. Athlete, writer, historian, traveler, explorer, patriot, soldier, statesman, administrator in many capacities from State Legislator to President, he made good in every capacity. Although abused and criticised, he had a wonderful hold on the hearts of the people, for everybody knew he was honest and unafraid. There are many worthy accomplishments in his distinguished career, but probably his most notable achievements are his determined and victorious fight against the trusts and wealthy exploiters of the American people. He insisted on a "square deal" for rich and poor, and demanded honesty in every department of the nation's government. His life was the synthesis of vigorous American ideas, his career, the embodiment of honest, patriotic Americanism. One of the very greatest of Americans has fallen—to go up higher.

The Children's Interest.

Although the statement may sound heretical in those quarters where ancient methods of politics are reverred, it is nevertheless the fact that the paramount interest in the business of selecting school books for four years to come is the children's interest. The desire of no publisher, neither the desire of any member of the commission to favor any publisher can be allowed to overshadow for a moment the children's interest.

Inevitably, if the children's interest be well served in the choice of school books, the State will be well served. It is trite to repeat that the child is the father of the man, yet the idea embodied in the truism should be foremost in the mind of the Governor when he sets about to select the men who will serve with Superintendent Gilbert and himself in this very important duty. No man should serve in this capacity except he be absolutely devoted to the furtherance of public education in Kentucky and that alone.

Perhaps there should be no changes made in the books in use in the public schools. Perhaps there should be a few changes. Perhaps there should be a sweeping change. The Governor's appointees, together with himself and Superintendent Gilbert, are empowered by the law to decide these questions. They will have in their hands the welfare of the State. Private interest cannot stand up before the public weal. It should be easy to find ten men of character and temperament fitted for this task.

Dont's For Employers.

When your former employee, who has been in the army or the navy returns to his job, here's a good set of "Dont's" to be observed:

"Don't drop dead if he comes down to work ahead of time. He acquired the early-rising habit in the army."

"Don't think he is trying to curry favor by his manner of addressing you. To the soldier every officer is 'Sir,' and you are his officer now."

"If, when you speak his name suddenly, he straightens up like a ramrod, don't think you have detected him in wrong-doing."

"Don't imagine that he is infatuated with the typist because he looks at her so frequently. It has been so long since he saw a real American girl."

"His attempts at 'straightening up' around the office should not be taken as an implication that you are slovenly. The army has taught him super-neatness."

"Please don't become irritated if his ability to think faster than you do proves annoying. The army is to blame."

"Do not dodge or prepare to ward off a blow if he makes a sudden movement with his arms. The odds are that he is absent-mindedly saluting."

"And don't marvel because he has ceased to glance at the clock. Remember, he wears a wrist watch now."

Back to Work.

Allowing several days for good measure, it will be time for everybody to get all their Christmas things into their respective drawers, shelves and other receptacles. The Christmas cards should be filed away or destroyed as one's custom may run; the Christmas tree should be dismantled; and while we keep all the good feeling and affectionate fellowship in our hearts, we should get down to business. Our soldiers are returning for demobilization, jobs must be supplied them and the labor of the day must be maintained. Throughout the land the wheels that so recently whirred their tireless song of war now hum in the great symphony to peace; and each one's part is required to maintain the vast orchestra in its perfection.

The years that lie before civilization will be strenuous years, hard years, perhaps, but the easiest way to victory in peace for this people is to seize the task at once in a spirit not only of self-interest, but of a continuing patriotism that puts the welfare of the community and the country before all other interests.

The production of food and staple goods of every character should be urged to the highest pitch; and the burdens upon the people that had increased enormously for years before the war should be lifted as quickly as possible. The work has returned, let us hie to our work.

Write To The Soldiers.

Letters from home were never more needed than at present, according to a statement issued by the headquarters of the Y. M. C. A., in Paris, France. It is urged that relatives of men in the service continue writing to them until their return has been definitely arranged for.

This statement was made after it had been learned that many soldiers and sailors had received letters saying that now that the war is over and the men soon to return to America, there is no further need to keep on writing.

YOU CAN'T FIND ANY DANDRUFF, AND HAIR STOPS COMING OUT

Save Your Hair! Make It Thick, Wavy, Glossy and Beautiful at Once.

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully drew it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment. A small bottle will double the beauty of your hair. (adv)

SOUTH AMERICAN TRADE.

The War Trade Board announces that cargo space for goods awaiting shipment to South America will in all probability soon be available. It is stated by the Board that "Dutch shipping amounting to 50,000 tons, less bunker space, is already available in United States ports or on the way here and other ships are being assigned.

"In addition to six Dutch ships already in American ports, Holland recently sent five ships, the Brunswick, Delta, Minerva, Moerdijk and Terschelling in the expectation of lifting cargoes of grain in the United States. But due to the congestion of grain-loading facilities, it has been decided by Holland to send these ships to South America for grain and the War Trade Board has facilitated the movement by the granting of bunker coal, not only for the trip to South America, but for the return journey. With the allotment of other tonnage, the merchants in Brazil, Argentina, Uruguay and other South American points will be able to secure without further delay the goods which have been purchased and stored and other goods which are now on order."

MILLERSBURG

—Mrs. M. E. Martin is not so well. —Mrs. S. E. Bruce left Saturday for a two-weeks' visit to her sister, at Chicago, Ill.

—Several new cases of flu have been reported during the past week by the various physicians. However, it is all in a light form. It still continues in the M. C., and will no doubt run its course there in a few days.

—Rev. J. M. Helm, of Parkersburg, W. Va., will preach at the Christian church next Sunday morning and evening, and every night during the week thereafter. The public is cordially invited to attend these services.

—Mrs. Mary Bruce Frederick left Sunday for Louisville, where she will meet her husband, Lieut. Frederick, who will be mustered out of the army service at Camp Taylor some time during the week. She was accompanied as far as Lexington by her mother, Mrs. J. D. Redd, who will remain as the guest of her brother, Capt. Milliken, and family, for several days.

—Mrs. W. M. Miller and sons, Messrs. William and Hart Miller, returned Saturday after a several-weeks visit to Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Buffington, at Columbus, O. They were accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. Buffington, Mr. Buffington leaving Sunday afternoon on a business trip to Pittsburgh, Pa. Mrs. Buffington will remain in the Miller home for a week.

—Mrs. Thomas Crump died at her home Thursday evening of the flu. She had been sick but a few days. She was the wife of Thomas Crump, residing on the farm of Mrs. Elizabeth H. Miller. They have been married for a number of years, but leave no children. Her sister-in-law, Mrs. Samuel Bartlett, died of the same disease about two weeks ago. The remains were interred in the Millersburg Cemetery Saturday afternoon after a short service at the grave by Rev. J. W. Gardner.

CLERK PATON WORKING TO GET WAR TROPHIES.

County Clerk Pearce Paton, one of the most popular and capable officials in Kentucky, has been quietly at work during the past few weeks "pulling wires" in an effort to secure two German trophies to adorn the entrance of Bourbon's magnificent Court House.

In his usual "gum shoe way," Mr. Paton took the matter up with Hon. E. H. Crowder, Provost Marshal General at Washington, and Mr. Paton's earnest request so impressed General Crowder that this high Army officer replied in a personal letter to Mr. Paton's request.

Acting on the suggestion of Gen. Crowder, Mr. Paton took the matter up with Congressman J. Campbell Cantrill, and from the latter's reply it would indicate that County Clerk Paton's efforts soon would result in Bourbon's securing two war trophies to be placed on either side of the court house entrance.

The letters of Provost Marshall General E. H. Crowder and that of Congressman J. Campbell Cantrill to Mr. Paton follow:

December 26, 1918.

Mr. Pearce Paton,
Paris, Kentucky.

My dear Sir:

Your letter from Paris, Kentucky, dated December 14, was brought to my personal attention and I have given it every consideration, hoping to write you more favorably than I can as to a definite plan for realizing your desire for war trophies to be placed in front of your Court House. The desire I have to be of service is reinforced by the splendid record you outline of the work of the board with which you have been identified and the pledge you make for the future.

Captured cannon, etc., is public property for which the Ordnance Department of the Army is responsible. Like all other public property it can be sold or otherwise distributed only in such manner as may be provided by legislation. At the present time there is no authority for the distribution, gratis, to communities of captured German Ordinance. However, many bills have been introduced in Congress on this general subject. I cannot yet determine the attitude of Congress toward these bills, but that it will take some definite action calculated to effect an equitable distribution is reasonably certain. I am going to ask you to write to your Congressman so that he and I may co-operate in the matter of such legislation.

I wish to assure you and through your board that, having to pursue the legislative route in this class of cases, there is no opportunity to do for you as good a job as you have done for me. If my single handed efforts would be effective I should expect to write you a different sort of letter.

With the season's best wishes, I am
Very cordially yours,
E. H. CROWDER.
Provost Marshal General.

Jan. 6th, 1919.

Hon. Pearce Paton,
Paris, Ky.

Dear Mr. Paton:

I am just in receipt of your telegram relative to securing two German trophies for Bourbon County.

It will take an act of Congress directing the Sec. of War to send the trophies to Bourbon and tomorrow I will introduce a bill to this effect and will make the best effort possible to secure the passage of the bill before Congress adjourns March 4th. With kindest regards and best wishes. I am,

Very sincerely yours,
J. C. CANTRELL.

CONSTIPATION AND INDIGESTION

"I have used Chamberlain's Tablets and must say they are the best I have ever used for constipation and indigestion. My wife also used them for indigestion and they did her good," writes Eugene S. Knight, Wilmington, N. C. Obtainable everywhere.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF JOHN D. CARROLL

Candidate for Democratic Nomination for Governor.

Because of that most excellent law which limits the candidate for Governor to $10,000, or about $34 to the county, to promote his candidacy, it has been necessary to print my complete announcement in pamphlet form. This pamphlet will be distributed throughout the State. It contains a full statement of my views on public questions, and I would like to see a copy in the hands of every Democratic voter in this brief space. I have attempted to summarize the more important subjects touched on in that pamphlet, which will be sent to anyone requesting it.

Labor Question.
I will vote for and support the Amendment to the Constitution to of the State so the present indebtedness may be retired without increasing taxes.

Labor.

Being a friend of labor and sympathizing with every legitimate effort to better living conditions, I favor such legislation as will promote the comfort and prosperity of the wage earner.

Law and Order.

Confident that the supremacy of law and preservation of order are indispensable to our peace and happiness, I am always have been a strong advocate of law and vigorous enforcement of law. I abhor mob law and am gratified that there will be submitted to the voters at the November election an amendment to the Constitution providing for the removal of any Peace Officer from the ballot if he fails to perform his duty. I will vote for this amendment and if elected will urge the Legislature to enact suitable laws for its enforcement.

Pardons.

I think the power to pardon should be sparingly exercised and pardon granted only when the ends of justice demand it.

Nonpartisan Judiciary.

The integrity and freedom from partiality of the judiciary of the State is a matter of congratulation of every citizen. I believe however, that the judiciary should be nonpartisan to the end there may not even be a suspicion that their judgment is warped by partisan feelings.

Nonpartisan Institutions.

Our public institutions should be honest and absolutely divorced from partisan politics. Faithful and competent men should be moved for partisan purposes or political reasons.

Fair Elections—Corrupt Practice Act.

Our Corrupt Practice Act is a long and fine step toward preventing bribery because it limits the sum that a candidate may spend. The provisions of the act I intend to support, according to its letter as well as spirit, although so doing will necessarily offend the benefit of much legitimate letter writing and helpful advertising.

Independent Vote.

If the Democratic party desires to win it must nominate candidates who can secure the independent vote. The Democratic should nominate that man, whether it be a self or another, who can poll the largest vote in the November election.

Business Administration.

Believing that the State may be likened to a big business corporation, I shall favor its business being conducted as nearly as possible in the same economical and efficient manner as a well managed business concern. I will devote all my time and attention to looking after State business, having little time for personal pleasure. I will be a business Governor, and during the term shall not be a candidate.

Education.

I have always been, and am now, a strong advocate of the Common School System. I am heartily in favor of making ample provision to secure for every child in the State an opportunity to obtain at least a good common school education. Furthermore, every effort will be directed to the enforcement of the compulsory school law so that every child within school years may be required to attend some school.

Public Roads.

I favor thorough co-ordination between State and county effort in road work so that good results may be obtained from the expenditure of State funds.

Agriculture.

As the chief wealth of our State is found in its agriculture, I favor putting the State Agricultural Department on such a financial basis as will enable it to render to the farmers of the State the most efficient and practical service.

New Tax Law.

The principle of classification of property and imposition of a different rate of taxation should not, in my judgment be changed until a trial has demonstrated its injustice. Such inequalities as may be in the present should be cured by proper legislation.

State Debt.

The State debt should not be permitted to grow larger and I would veto all appropriations in excess of revenue and try to arrange the affairs of the State to put them into effective form.

JOHN D. CARROLL.

Conclusion.

FRIDAY COURIER-JOURNAL

CHERRY INDORSED BY HIS HOME PEOPLE

Great Assembly Cheer the Noted Educator and Adopt Stirring Resolutions Endorsing His Candidacy for Governor.

A great mass meeting was held at Bowling Green on Saturday, December 28th, to endorse the candidacy of Dr. H. H. Cherry for the Democratic nomination for Governor. It was an enthusiastic meeting, and one which showed that the people of his native county, among whom he has lived and worked all his life, appreciate his qualities of life and leadership, and are back of his candidacy. Mr. Morgan Hughes, a fellow-townsmen of Dr. Cherry, and a noted western Kentucky farmer, reported, as chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, the following resolutions, which were unanimously and enthusiastically adopted:

Dr. H. H. CHERRY, Bowling Green.

The Democrats of Warren County, hailing from every precinct within her borders, in mass meeting assembled do hereby confidently and enthusiastically command to the Democracy of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, the candidacy of H. H. Cherry, who seeks his party's nomination as its candidate for Governor, at the primary election to be held on August 2, 1919. Dr. Cherry was born and reared in Warren county, springing from a Christian family of hardy pioneers. Here he has spent his life. Here he has risen by his unaided efforts, from an humble farmer-lad to become the head of a great educational institution, in which the people everywhere feel a justified pride; and from here his influence for good has radiated throughout the entire State. Every forward-looking movement for the credit of the State and the welfare of the people has always had in him an earnest and effective champion. Every moral issue which has risen has always found him on the right side. Every progressive measure which has been proposed, whether for governmental efficiency, educational expansion, agricultural betterment, or purity in politics, has always received his unflagging support. He is an earnest and life-long Democrat, who has hitherto been content to be a worker in the ranks. His excellent ability, tried through years of experience, and tested by many difficulties, is of the highest order. Personally honest, politically incorruptible, trained in the difficult work of intelligent and effective leadership, he is eminently qualified to fill the office of Governor, with credit alike to himself and to the Commonwealth. We, his fellow-county men, earnestly endorse his candidacy, and confidently bespeak for him the generous support of every Democrat everywhere throughout the entire State."

Dr. Cherry has issued a progressive program. In his announcement he states that he submits his desires to the people, and under no circumstances will he be a candidate of any political faction. He stands for perfecting the tax and road laws; for organizing the finances of the State upon a sound, equitable and just basis; for economy and efficiency in all departments of State government; for the elimination of every useless job and all forms of waste; for local, State and National prohibition; for the right of suffrage for the women of the State equally with the men; for safeguarding and promoting the rights of the laboring man; for better rural schools; for better health conditions; for a non-partisan judiciary, and for the non-partisan management of charitable and penal institutions, free from all political influences. He also endorses reforms along other vital lines. He believes that capital should be encouraged to come within our borders; that labor should be secured and received fair treatment and just compensation; that the education should drive illiteracy from the State, and agriculture, which is the basis of our wealth, should be fostered and raised to the highest degree of efficiency. He declares that Kentucky needs more fields of alfalfa, more agricultural limekilns, and other things, and less political buttonholes.

If you endorse this character of a man and the principles he advocates, Dr. Cherry would value your support, and if you feel like writing him, he would greatly appreciate hearing from you.

SAVINGS STILL NEEDED.

Secretary of the Treasury Carter Glass, in the first detailed statement issued by him since he succeeded W. G. McAdoo, outlined plans for Government financing in the near future. He warned against relaxation and self-satisfaction, pointing out that the war job is not yet completed and that the American people must continue to save and lend their savings to the Government.

The statement, in part, is as follows:

"In the eighteen months of the war American people subscribed for $18,000,000,000 of Liberty Bonds and War Savings Certificates. Secretary McAdoo has estimated that the cash outgo from the treasury during the current fiscal year, ending June 30, 1919, will amount to $18,000,000,000, and much more than half of that amount has already been expended in the five and one-half months which have elapsed.

"The treasury must issue another large loan before the end of the fiscal year, and I am entirely in accord with the policy already outlined that this loan should take the form of bonds of short maturities.

"It is vitally important that the treasury should continue in a most energetic way the sale of War Savings Stamps and Certificates.

"Millions of our people have become holders of bonds of their Government, but some of them seem to feel that they are under no further obligation to retain these bonds and they are selling them and using the money for unnecessary purposes or exchanging them for other securities of doubtful value. So long as the United States needs to sell bonds those who hold the present issues should not dispose of them except under the spur of urgent necessity. They have invested in the best security in the world, and it is both to their own interest and to that of their Government that these securities be retained.

"There is no doubt that there is throughout the country a feeling of relaxation—a feeling of self-satisfaction that the work already is performed and a strong and not unreasonable call to take up once more individual and business interests and activity. The organizations which have given their time to the sale of bonds were prepared for the task which would have confronted them if the war had continued throughout the year of 1919 or longer, and I am confident that despite these handicaps they will not now relax their efforts and leave the task unfinished.

"Victory has come to us earlier than we might reasonably have expected, but victory will not cause us to neglect the completion of that work which made victory possible."

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

To Secure the Best Positions You Prepare For Them.

You cannot afford to take any chances in selection of a business school for your boy or your girl or yourself—You don't have to go by guess work—a little investigation will convince you that the Fugazzi School of Business can offer you more advantages—give you a better more thorough and more efficient training than you can get at the average school and as good as the best schools in the country.

Our corps of teachers is unsurpassed—and though our school is now composed of about 200 students—individual instruction is given to each.

The high opinion in which business men hold the Fugazzi School is reflected in the great demand for our graduates which demand we do not begin to be able to fill.

Write for booklet or call at the school. Day and Night Classes.

Get a small trial bottle! Rub this soothing, penetrating liniment right into the sore, inflamed nerves, and like magic—neuralgia disappears. "St. Jacobs Liniment" conquers pain. It is a harmless neuralgia relief which doesn't burn or discolor the skin.

Don't suffer! It's so needless. Get a small trial bottle from any drug store and gently rub the "aching nerves" and in just a moment you will be absolutely free from pain, ache and suffering, but what will please you more is, that the misery will not come back.

No difference whether your pain or neuralgia misery is in the face, head or any part of the body, you get instant relief and without injury.

TO CONSIDER RATES ON CATTLE SHIPMENTS.

The district freight traffic committee of the United States Railroad Administration has notified the Board of Commerce that a meeting of the committee will be held in Louisville, Tuesday, February 11, to consider the propriety of establishing a fixed relationship between the rates on cattle, hogs, sheep, etc., and the rates on packing house products.

The notice states that the traffic committee desires the views of interested parties on this subject, and local shippers affected by proposed change in rates on live stock are invited to attend the meeting or express their views in writing.

MODERN BUNGALOW AT AUCTION

Harris & Speakes will sell for Thomas A. McDonald, on Tuesday, January 21, his handsome modern bungalow, 1219 Main street. Look this property over if you want a nice home. (14-3t)

FLEMING FARMS FOR SALE

We will sell at public sale on the premises near Flemingsburg, Ky., at 1 p. m., on Saturday, January 18, 1919, the homestead of the late Geo. S. Fleming, and later owned by his son, Chas. M. Fleming, the well-known feeder of export cattle.

This tract contains 265 acres of the best of the large farms, and has on it the large brick residence and fine cattle and tobacco barns. The land is all limestone and much of it has been in bluegrass sod for years. It is well fenced and watered and in a fine state of cultivation. It will be offered in two tracts, as follows:

The homestead of 165 acres with the improvements, and 100 acres on the south end without improvements, and them as a whole, and sold to produce the most money.

This land is located within a mile of the city of Flemingsburg, on a good pike, and is really one of the best, if not the best farms in Fleming county. The failing health of Mr. Fleming is the only thing which caused him to offer it for sale, and Messrs. Skinner, Rhodes & Rhodes, very promptly bought it, and have placed it in our hands for sale. Terms liberal and made known on the day of sale.

The same firm will also sell on the premises the three farms of George H. Maddox, on Monday, January 20, described as follows: One farm of 62 acres, located on Hussey pike, 3 miles northwest of Flemingsburg, with good dwelling, barn and other implements, at 9 a. m.; another farm of 100 acres, 3 miles northeast of Flemingsburg, on the Flemingsburg and Mt. Carmel pike, with comfortable dwelling and improvements, nearly all in grass, with plenty of tobacco land, at 10 a. m. The third is the home of Mr. Maddox and contains 144 acres, located about 5 miles northeast of Flemingsburg, on the Maddox pike. Has good house of 7 rooms, 2 halls and cellar, tenant house, 2 barns and all necessary outbuildings. Has an orchard in full bearing and another coming into bearing, all fine fruit. This farm is nearly all in grass with a fine lot of locust timber on it, and plenty of tobacco land. This farm will be sold at 11 a. m. Terms will be made liberal.

Come and see these farms. DULEY, HUDSON & McCARTNEY, Flemingsburg, Ky. (14-1t)

REAL ESTATE DEALS.

Harris & Speakes, of Paris, sold Saturday, the Charles Casey farm of 95½ acres, located near Centerville, to J. E. Casey, of Paris, for $120 per acre. The low price for the farm is said to have been due to the fact that it is located about a mile from the pike, and hard to get to.

Mrs. Elizabeth Rogers, of Lexington, has sold to Mr. and Mrs. John Sauer, of near Paris, her frame cottage in East Paris, at present occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Joe B. Smith. The price paid was $3,000. Mr. and Mrs. Sauer, recently sold their farm near Paris. They will move to their new purchase about the first of next March.

Mr. and Mrs. Porter Jett have sold their two-story frame house in East Paris to Mr. John Brophy, of near Paris, for $3,000. Mr. and Mrs. Jett will move to their farm near Ruddells Mills. Mr. Brophy and family will occupy the property about March 1.

Mr. James Caldwell, of the county, has purchased of Mr. George R. Bell, of this city, a tract of unimproved land, containing about thirty acres, located on the Jackstown pike, and adjoining the Caldwell lands, for $300 an acre.

Mrs. Evelyn Buck recently sold her home on Pleasant street to Mr. Geo. W. Redmon for a price said to be $6,000. Mr. Redmon sold his fine farm on the Jackstown pike, near Paris, recently. He will move to the home, which will undergo extensive remodeling, about March 1.

Wm. H. Whaley purchased Saturday the Kennedy property of eight and one-half acres, adjoining the rear of his farm at the intersection of the Paris & Lexington, and the Clintonville pikes, for $6,000. This gives Mr. Whaley a plot of twenty-four acres.

Charles Wilmot purchased of Rev. R. E. Herrington, Saturday, a cottage on Kentucky avenue, for $1,200.

Through the Harris & Speakes' real estate agency of Paris, Roger Crouch, of the county, sold Saturday to Mr. McDaniel, of Harrison county, seventy-five acres of the A. S. Thompson lands. Mr. Crouch purchased the land at public sale recently and resold it Saturday at a substantial advance over the original purchase price.

Mr. and Mrs. James Doty, of this city, purchased recently of Hon. C. M. Thomas, the old Williams home on Pleasant street, recently vacated by the Misses Williams, and purchased at private sale by Mr. Thomas. The price was $8,500. Mr. and Mrs. Doty will occupy the home. This is one of the most desirable homes in the city. It was built of the best materials obtainable by the owner, Major Frank Williams, at one time Mayor of the city of Paris, before the Civil War, and is considered one of the most substantial homes in the city.

KINDERGARTEN DEPARTMENT AT PARIS CITY SCHOOL

The Kindergarten Department at the City School had a good beginning Monday, January 6. The Kindergarten became a department in the City Public Schools on January 6, under the direction of Miss Ellen Blanding, a graduate in Kindergarten work. Arrangements had been made for a class of twelve children for the session, but as that number have already enrolled and there are so many more applications the school is arranging now to care for twenty-five. The hours for Kindergarten children are from one to three o'clock Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. Parents who desire to get their children in this class will please bring them to the school at these hours. All parents interested in Kindergarten work are invited to visit the school and observe the work.

In addition to this work a course in kindergarten training will start Wednesday, January 15, at nine o'clock. We are prepared at the present to offer this training to six young women who desire to become Kindergarten teachers. The applicants for this training should have a High School education or its equivalent. They will be required to attend Kindergarten sessions Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from one until three o'clock and a special session on Wednesdays from nine until twelve for Miss Blanding's lectures.

The training course of study consists of:

1. Forebels Mother Play.
2. Psychology of Gifts.
3. Occupations.
4. Child Psychology.
5. Story Telling.
6. Theory of Play.

7. Theory of Music for Young Children.

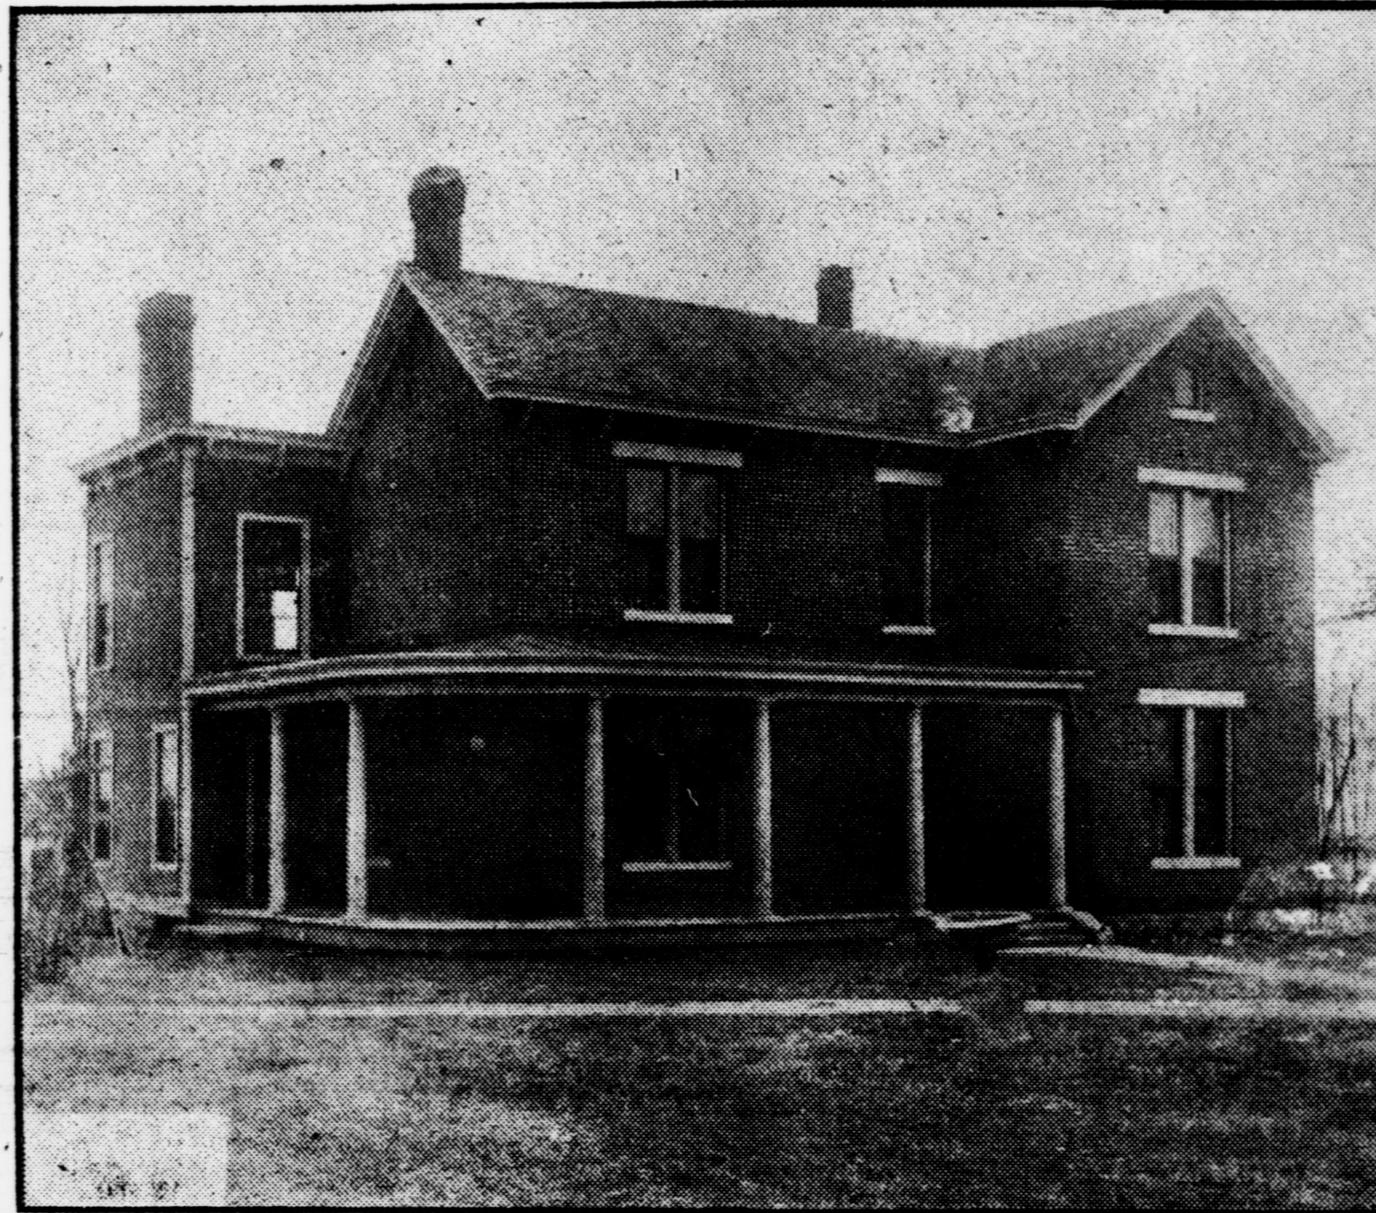

There will be no expense attached to the training other than the purchase of text books and the materials in the occupation class.

Application for training should be made to Miss Blanding at the school this week, between the hours of eight and four o'clock.

Public Auction*FRED FISTER FARM

Wednesday, January 22, 1919

AT 10:30 A. M.

We will sell on the above day and date at public auction on the premises on the Paris and North Middletown pike, three-fourths mile from the city limits of Paris, Ky., the Fred Fister farm of 212 acres, better known as the George W. Wyatt farm. The farm is under good fencing and is one of the best watered in the county.

About 75 acres in old bluegrass sod, 25 acres in clover, fine stand, and about 80 acres in wheat. The wheat on this farm in 1918 made 30 bushels to the acre. 175 acres of this farm will grow fine tobacco.

Practically new two-story brick residence of eight rooms, halls, pantry and presses, heated by furnace and grates, has acetylene lights, and must be seen to be appreciated.

Has stone foundation and roomy cellar, well and cistern in yard, servants' quarters, brick stock barn, frame cattle barn, and all necessary outbuildings in good repair. For the past twenty years the farm was owned by two of the best farmers in the county and never was rented out.

The farm will be sold in two tracts and then as a whole.

TRACT NO. 1—Contains about 130.02 acres with residence and outbuildings described above.

TRACT NO. 2—Contains about 82.38 acres. It has upon it a good five-room tenant house and a new 15-acre tobacco barn.

The sale will be positive and without reserve, rain or shine. You make the price, we make the deed.

TERMS—Ten per cent cash in hand day of sale, 23 1-3 per cent March 1st, when possession will be given, balance in one and two years with deferred notes bearing six per cent interest.

PUBLIC SALE*Desirable Brick Bungalow

We will sell at public auction on the premises, at 1219 Main street, on at 2 o'clock, the attractive and up-to-date brick bungalow belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Thos. A. McDonald.

This well built brick bungalow is one and one-half stories high, is practically new. Has all the modern and up-to-date improvements, contains six rooms, hall, complete bath room, fine cellar, stone foundation, slate roof, furnace, gas, electric lights, water, Higgins' dust proof screen doors and windows, garage, etc.

This attractive bungalow was built recently by Mr. and Mrs. McDonald for their home, and every detail was carried out in its construction with a view of permanency and attractiveness. It certainly is a home of which any one could be justly proud. Anyone interested should inspect the property before the day of sale.

PARIS AND GEORGETOWN BREAK EVEN IN GAMES.

Paris High School and the Georgetown school basketball teams played double-header games at the Y. M. C. A., Friday night. The girls' team of Paris High defeated the Georgetown team by a score of 36 to 6, while the Paris boys' team went down in defeat to the Georgetown team by a score of 26 to 24.

NEWS FROM OIL FIELDS

News from the Eastern Kentucky oil district received in Paris, last week, was to the effect that the new company, The Co-Operative Land & Development Company, had brought in what is known as well No. 1 in Estill county, with a flow of 50 barrels per day.

A smaller well on the Gabbard lease in the same county and belonging to the Bourbon Oil & Development Company is reported in with a run of 30 barrels per day.

K. OF P. BANQUET.

Covers will be laid for a large gathering of Knights of Pythias at the Crosdale Hotel, Thursday night. A banquet will follow the conferring of the first degree on several candidates. All members of Rathbone Lodge are urged to be present at the lodge room in the Wilson building, at the corner of Main and Third, promptly at 7:00 p. m. Thursday evening. The initiation ceremonies will follow the business session. The banquet will then be held at the Crosdale Hotel.

PARIS WOMAN CONTRIBUTES TO COVINGTON THIMBLE FUND.

The Covington correspondence of the Cincinnati Times-Star, says, in the Saturday issue:

"Covington school children were busy Saturday soliciting donations for the Thimble Fund. Brass keys and small metals were sought by these children, who will deliver their collections to their teachers at the schools Monday. A committee was in charge of Thimble Fund headquarters, in the Mutual Fire Insurance Company building, on Madison avenue, Saturday."

"Mrs. Buckner Woodford, a sister of the late Urie J. Howard, who was active in patriotic work in Covington writing from Paris, Ky., to Mrs. Richmond, says: 'I have read with keenest interest the Thimble Fund stories and I send my mite to the fund.'"

THROWING BOUQUETS AT THE NEWS, EH?

We are not a bit puffed up over the letter we recently received from one of the best-known advertising agencies in the country, the T. H. Starks Co., of Louisville, and not disposed to blow our own horn. But it is in furtherance of our contention that "advertising pays" that we take pleasure in publishing the letter, which follows:

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 11, 1919.

"THE BOURBON NEWS, Paris, Ky.: I am enclosing herewith statement of your account, together with check in full. I would say that I had a little talk with the officers of the McCombs Oil Company this morning, and they tell me the result of the campaign in your paper were very satisfactory, indeed, eminently so. Investors that took hold of this stock will find it a most unusually profitable undertaking.

"Yours truly,
T. H. STARKS."

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.*Comings and Goings of Our People Here, There and Elsewhere.

Mrs. Joseph Speakes has returned from a visit to relatives in Lexington.

Mr. Harry Baldwin and son, Harry Baldwin, Jr., are ill with the influenza.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "loggy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c a box. All druggists.

KENTUCKY CROP ESTIMATE.

Kentucky farmers this fall increased their acreage of wheat more than one hundred thousand acres over that sown in 1917, and it has gone into the winter in remarkably excellent condition, 98 per cent. compared to a ten-year average condition of 88 per cent. The total sown in the State is estimated at 1,056,720 acres this fall compared to 952,000 acres in the fall of 1917.

The unusually mild fall weather was specially favorable for sowing and for good growth and many farmers increased their acreage even beyond their first intentions. The campaign for increased acreage of wheat and the Government's guaranteed price were also strong factors in increasing the acreage.

In counties where little or no wheat is usually raised the increase this year was in many instances several hundred per cent., while in the heavy wheat producing sections of Western Kentucky and the Blue Grass counties the increase ranged from 8 to 15 per cent., making an average State increase of about 11 per cent. over the acreage sown in 1917.

The United States winter wheat acreage this fall is 49,027,000, compared to 42,301,000 acres sown last year, an increase of nearly 16 per cent., while the condition in the country as a whole is 98.5 per cent. compared to a ten-year average condition of 88.2 per cent.

Rye acreage in Kentucky this year is approximately the same as that sown in the fall of 1917, 65,000 acres, while its condition is excellent, 97 per cent. Most of the rye in Kentucky is grown in the north central counties and those bordering the Ohio River from Louisville and Maysville.

Acreage of rye in the entire United States this fall is 6,820,000 compared to 6,708,000 acres sown in 1917, and the condition is 89 per cent. compared to a ten-year average condition of 91.4 per cent.

GERMAN AIRPLANE CONSTRUCTION.

The French press is pointing out the serious danger of allowing the Germans absolute freedom in the construction of airplanes for commercial purposes. It is claimed that within a few years Germany could build twenty or thirty thousand such planes and that it would require but a few days to transform them into bombing planes capable of carrying cargoes of explosives sufficient to destroy Paris or London within a few hours or to do inestimable damage throughout France or England in a single night.

It is reported that already there is wide-spread and almost feverish activity in German aircraft industries, and that extensive plans have been formulated for the covering of all Germany—and indeed the continent of Europe and many other parts of the world—with a network of German aerial transportation lines; and it may well be that the apparent meekness on the part of Germany in surrendering her fleet of warships was due to the fact that the leaders of that country have lost faith in the value of marine war vessels and have decided to concentrate their efforts for future commercial and military supremacy upon the speedy creation of a huge fleet of flyers which might well make them masters not only of the air but of land and sea as well.

Whatever Germany's real object may be, it is evident that the warning from the French people is very timely and that measures should be taken immediately by the allied governments which will perpetually prevent Germany from manufacturing aircraft of any kind which can possibly menace the peace of the world. It would seem that this end might well be accomplished by providing, in the peace terms, that the allies shall perpetually control all German metal production and importation. This would not only permit the limitation of aircraft construction but it would also compel Germany forever to follow only peaceful pursuits, for no nation can successfully make war without an ample supply of the metals.

OLD GLORY FLOATS OVER THE RHINE.

It is reported that a number of river steamers, taken over by the American Army in western Germany, have hoisted the Stars and Stripes and are proudly carrying Old Glory at their mastheads as they journey up the Rhine.

The possession of this American fleet on the Rhine—affording as it does an excellent means of direct communication with our ocean-going vessels on the North Sea—is also of interest because of the means thus made available for the speedy augmentation or the withdrawal, as occasion may require, of the forces of the allies.

In this connection the boys of the Third American Army (which is now stationed at and near Coblenz, Germany, on the Rhine Rive, about midway between Switzerland and the North Sea) recently became mildly excited over the rumor that the Second Army is soon to relieve them. If this action is taken it seems probable that the Third Army will, instead of returning through France, be brought here entirely by water, and will thus reach home much more quickly than would otherwise be possible.

DON'T SCOLD, MOTHER!
THE CROSS CHILD IS
BILIOUS. FEVERISH

Look at Tongue! If Coated, Clean Little Stomach, Liver, Bowels.

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy, mother! A little given to-day saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeit sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

PERUNA A WONDERFUL MEDICINE

Rundown and Unable to Work

"I am pleased to recommend Peruna as it was beneficial in restoring my health when I was all run down from overwork and unable to take up my regular work. A friend recommended Peruna and said he was sure that it would restore my strength. I soon found that I was getting better and in that time I was able to resume my duties with renewed vigor and strength. It certainly is a wonderful medicine to vitalize the system."

GOVERNMENT IS SELLING NITRATE TO THE FARMERS.

Notice has been given to L. S. Robbins, agricultural agent for Bourbon county, that the United States Department of Agriculture will sell at cost a supply of nitrate of soda to farmers in Bourbon county for fertilizers.

The nitrate will be sold under the authority of the Food Control act and subsequent legislation relating thereto. The price will be $81 a ton, free on board cars at loading point or port. Farmers will pay in addition freight to their shipping points.

Applications for a part of the nitrate sold by the government will be received only from actual farmers or owners or holders of farms for use on their land, and may be made through County Agent L. S. Robbins or through any member of the local committee.

No money will be required with the application, but upon notice from the authorized representative of the Department of Agriculture farmers who have signed applications must deposit with a local bank, association, or individual designated by the Secretary of Agriculture to act as the farmers' agent for that purpose, money to cover the cost of the fertilizer except the freight charge. In practically every case the money will be paid to a county agent distributor designated by the Department of Agriculture.

Nitrate will be shipped to distributors on sight draft with bill of lading attached. Distributors will pay drafts, take up bill of lading, collect money from farmers and distribute nitrate to farmers. Arrangements have been made to secure a large quantity of nitrate and it is believed that all reasonable requirements can be met.

THE GIST OF IT.

"Last December I had a very severe cold and was nearly down sick in bed. I bought two bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it was only very few days until I was restored to health," writes O. J. Metcalfe, Weatherby, Mo. If you would know the value of this remedy, ask any one who has used it. Obtainable everywhere.

WILLIAM HOHENZOLLERN, STILL WEALTHY, THOUGH EXILED AND ILL.

Although the former German Emperor is now utterly shorn of all official power, he is still much in the public eye and doubtless will continue to attract special attention until his fate is decided.

While the ex-Kaiser is virtually a prisoner, he still has on deposit in various banks, at 4½ per cent. interest, cash amounting to $4,760,000; so that even though the large governmental annuities to the various members of the Hohenzollern family (the payment of which has been suspended) should be abolished, and the 90 valuable estates to which his family lays claim be confiscated by the German people, there will still be enough to enable the head of the family to provide fairly comfortably for his wife and children whatever may be his own fate.

Recent reports indicate that this one-time Emperor has for some days been seriously indisposed and that he is now confined to his bed almost continuously. This illness seems to be due primarily to a renewal of his chronic ear trouble, but is doubtless aggravated by other long-standing physical infirmities, by the changes of habit and environment incident to his confinement, and also by the mental depression and worry occasioned by his vastly changed estate.

It is said that the former rudeness of his complexion has entirely disappeared and that his face is now ashen and marked by deep lines; that his mustache and hair are both gray; and that, with the beard grown during his recent confinement in bed, he looks like a withered old man of 70 or 80 years and bears but little semblance of the proud ruler of that day, only a few months ago, when, with the German hosts rapidly overwhelming France, he was grooming himself for his triumphal entrance into Paris.

Some idea of the enormity of the ex-Kaiser's vanity, and the consequent greatness of the blow which his pride has received, may be obtained from the fact that a recent inventory of his private belongings in Berlin and Potsdam shows that his wardrobe, when he fled from Germany, included 598 military and naval uniforms.

Breeding always counts. When a man is crusty it's because that's the way he is bred.

THE GROWING AMERICAN TOY INDUSTRY.

The closing of the ports of Germany during the last four years has denuded the markets of the world of practically all German made toys. In some of these markets it is doubtful if the stocks will ever be replenished from Germany. During the war England has been securing many of her toys from France, Italy and Japan, and it is probable that in the future American toys will also find a good market there.

The toy manufacturers of America have had such an increase of orders since the signing of the armistice that the demand far exceeds their output. Before the war there were but twenty-one firms in the United States engaged in the manufacture of toys, with an annual business of only about $7,500.00. However, during the war ninety-four new toy factories were started and it is estimated that the aggregate business of the entire toy industry for the year 1918 will be more than $20,000,000. The assurances which American toy manufacturers are receiving from toy dealers, that they will not deal in German-made toys for many years to come, is greatly stimulating our American toy industry, and will do much toward making the United States the foremost toy-producing country in the world.

Toy makers are planning to use thousands of crippled soldiers in their work, which is not only light, but is of such a nature that, even should a soldier be unable to come to the factory, the work could be performed by him at home. This home-work plan has been carried on successfully for many years in the toy centers of Europe, and it is probable that many of our boys who have been crippled by the war will be able to secure congenial and profitable employment in the American toy industry.

INCREASED FOOD SHIPMENTS TO EUROPE.

Mr. Herbert Hoover, our well known Food Administrator, was recently instructed by President Wilson to make a personal survey of the situation in Belgium and other countries devastated by the war, and to prepare a comprehensive program for food and other forms of relief which should be provided by this country. He has now completed such survey in Belgium and, on Christmas day, it was announced by the Washington headquarters of the United States Food Administration that, in compliance with directions from Mr. Hoover, who is still in Europe, the program for the furnishing of food and clothing to European countries is to be enlarged. It is now proposed to ship at least 180,000 tons of food and clothing per month to Belgium and it is said that 500,000 dead weight tons of shipping will be required constantly in order to carry out the new program. At present but 340,000 tons of shipping are available for this purpose but it is expected that the United States Shipping Board will promptly provide the 160,000 additional tons needed.

Third, the assessment of damages and indemnities and the manner of their payment.

Fourth, the conclusion of peace treaties with the Central Powers.

The peace treaties may be left to the last because none of the agreements can bind the Central Powers unless, in the meantime, they satisfy the peace congress as to their stability and purpose of carrying out the treaties made.

At this point arises the question of how long the peace congress will wait for the Central Powers to arrange their governments. It is pointed out by some of those working on the problem that neither Germany nor America can complete their governmental machinery until it is determined what the two peoples desire in this matter. It is of course, dependent largely on the peace congress, but it is not expected that the congress will wait indefinitely for the Central Empires to prepare themselves for an agreement.

There is always the possibility that if no responsible governments appear to give assurance that obligations undertaken will be carried out, the nations represented at the congress could give notice that it would become necessary, at certain points, to assist in the formation of orderly governments and at the same time begin to collect revenues to apply on the bill of damages.

Such action, if taken at all, would be only a last resort, but if taken the question would arise as to how far the United States would participate. No official outline has been made to show what the United States would agree to do in carrying out such an undertaking, if it should become necessary, but some of those best informed as to the lines along which Mr. Wilson and the peace commissioners are working believe that it is the purpose of the United States to go no further into the readjustment of European affairs than to secure general adherence to the principles already laid down by President Wilson and then expect, of course, the details to square with the principles.

The execution of these details, some diplomats believe, may extend into a work of years, developing into a process of "constant improvement and adjustment."

THE PRESIDENT'S CONFERENCES WITH PREMIERS DELAYED.

PARIS, Jan. 13.—President Wilson's conferences with the premiers of Great Britain, France and Italy, which were to open Thursday have been delayed and probably will be delayed and probably will begin some day this week.

Mr. Lloyd George is detained in reconstruction of his cabinet. Premier Orlando, of Italy, who is due here today, will probably return to Rome where his presence for forty-eight hours is necessary because of matters under consideration by the Italian parliament.

There was, however, a meeting today at the office of Stephen Pichon, foreign minister. It was attended by Mr. Wilson, Premier Orlando and the Japanese representatives, but it was informal because of the absence of Mr. Lloyd George, altho the British representatives were present. It was considered best to hold the meeting and clear up some preliminary points and it is believed that important details of procedure will be settled. If this is done the delegates will be in a position, when Mr. Lloyd George arrives, to rapidly complete the preliminary work and clear up matters for the opening conferences on Monday and Tuesday.

It is not expected there will be a long debate at the conferences, the morning newspapers saying that the French government communicated to the Entente Powers some days ago a complete plan of work, amounting to a suggestion of a coordinated program.

As regards questions concerning enemy countries it is understood that those concerning Germany will be taken up first, then those of Austria-Hungary, and finally those relative to Bulgaria and Turkey. These details will probably not be decided upon until the league of nations part of the program has been exhausted, however.

It is not expected that the premiers' conference (with Mr. Wilson acting as America's premier), will deal with more than the most general principles of the peace settlement. In fact, it now seems doubtful if more than a broad, general agreement will be reached before President Wilson returns to America in February.

Out of the coming conferences, it is expected that a more or less tentative program will be adopted which divides the work of the peace congress into successive steps. The actual making of peace with the Central Powers may be the last of these steps. The procedure now being discussed is, roughly, as follows:

First, a general agreement between the United States and the Entente belligerents for the creation of a league of nations, or similar machinery, to enforce the terms of peace and preserve it.

Second, the settling up of new independent States growing out of the war.

Third, the assessment of damages and indemnities and the manner of their payment.

Fourth, the conclusion of peace treaties with the Central Powers.

The peace treaties may be left to the last because none of the agreements can bind the Central Powers unless, in the meantime, they satisfy the peace congress as to their stability and purpose of carrying out the treaties made.

At this point arises the question of how long the peace congress will wait for the Central Powers to arrange their governments. It is pointed out by some of those working on the problem that neither Germany nor America can complete their governmental machinery until it is determined what the two peoples desire in this matter. It is of course, dependent largely on the peace congress, but it is not expected that the congress will wait indefinitely for the Central Empires to prepare themselves for an agreement.

There is always the possibility that if no responsible governments appear to give assurance that obligations undertaken will be carried out, the nations represented at the congress could give notice that it would become necessary, at certain points, to assist in the formation of orderly governments and at the same time begin to collect revenues to apply on the bill of damages.

Such action, if taken at all, would be only a last resort, but if taken the question would arise as to how far the United States would participate. No official outline has been made to show what the United States would agree to do in carrying out such an undertaking, if it should become necessary, but some of those best informed as to the lines along which Mr. Wilson and the peace commissioners are working believe that it is the purpose of the United States to go no further into the readjustment of European affairs than to secure general adherence to the principles already laid down by President Wilson and then expect, of course, the details to square with the principles.

The execution of these details, some diplomats believe, may extend into a work of years, developing into a process of "constant improvement and adjustment."

BAD COLD QUICKLY BROKEN UP.

Mrs. Martha Wilcox, Gowanda, N.Y., writes: "I first used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy about eight years ago. At that time I had a hard cold and coughed most of the time. It proved to be just what I needed. It broke up the cold in a few days, and the cough entirely disappeared. I have told many of my friends of the good I received through using this medicine, and all who have used it speak of it in the highest terms." Obtained everywhere.

MID-WINTER MEETING OF STATE EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION

V. O. Gilbert, State Superintendent of Schools, has addressed a letter to city school superintendents and the principals of high schools, urging them to attend the mid-winter meeting of the Kentucky Educational Association in Louisville, January 16. On this date he says how to make up time lost on account of the schools being closed all fall and winter to date will be discussed. Gilbert says this is the most important meeting in school circles this year, and he wants every teacher who can to attend the meeting.

WOMEN OF SEDENTARY HABITS

Women who get little exercise are likely to be troubled with constipation and indigestion and will find Chamberlain's Tablets highly beneficial. Not so good as a three or four mile walk every day, but very much better than to allow the bowels to remain in a constipated condition. They are easy and pleasant to take and most agreeable in effect. Obtainable everywhere.

MAKE YOUR SHOES WEAR LONGER

Ten months ago, W. H. Kelley, a lumber salesman of Omaha, had a pair of shoes re-soled with Neolin Soles. Mr. Kelley does much walking and has worn these shoes constantly. He says "they are still good for another ten months of wear."

Good shoe stores carry Neolin Soles in many styles for men, women and children. They cost you no more than shoes that give less wear. Neolin Soles are also available everywhere for re-soled. Remember—these soles are created by science to be what soles should be. They are comfortable and waterproof—as well as long-wearing. They are made by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company, Akron, Ohio, who also make Wingfoot Heels—guaranteed to outwear any other heels.

DEATHS.

MATRIMONIAL.

CURTIS.

Edward Curtis, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Curtis, residing on the Murphy farm, near North Middletown, died Sunday after a short illness of influenza. The boy's mother was brought to the Massie Memorial Hospital, in Paris, yesterday, suffering with influenza, while the father and two other children are ill with the disease at their home.

ORMES.

Buford Ormes, two-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Ormes, died at the home of his parents, on South Main street, Sunday morning at three o'clock, after a short illness of pneumonia.

The funeral was held yesterday morning, at ten o'clock, with services conducted at the grave in the Paris Cemetery by Rev. G. R. Combs, pastor of the Paris Methodist church.

YEAGER.

Bourbon county relatives are in receipt of news of the death in Spencer, West Va., of influenza, of W. C. Yeager, for many years a resident of Cane Ridge, and later prominent in insurance circles in Kentucky, Tennessee and West Virginia. He was the eldest son of Mr. Silas Yeager, prominent Lexington real estate man, who resided in Paris and the county for many years.

SMITH.

Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, aged eighty-six, died at the Massie Memorial Hospital, in this city yesterday, after a short illness. Mrs. Smith sustained injuries in a fall some time ago. She is survived by two sons, Wm. Smith, Superintendent of the Paris Cemetery, and Charles Smith, of near Georgetown.

The funeral services will be held at 2:30 this afternoon, with services conducted at the grave in the Paris Cemetery by Rev. W. E. Ellis.

The pall-bearers will be J. Hooker Stivers, Walter Clark, C. L. Blackerby, Dr. Wm. Kenney, Thos. Williams and Fred Link.

GILSON.

Mr. Irvine Boyd Gilson, aged twenty, a former resident of Paris, died in the C. & O. Hospital, West Virginia, Thursday afternoon at 4:45 o'clock, after an illness of two weeks of typhoid-pneumonia. The body was brought to his old home in Lexington, where the funeral was held from the family residence Saturday afternoon, with services conducted at two o'clock, by Rev. E. T. Edmonds, pastor of the Woodland Christian church. The interment followed in the Lexington Cemetery. The pall-bearers were Archie Roberts, William Greninger, Jas. Meade, Chas. Poer, Raymond Cranfield and James Smith.

Mr. Gilson during his residence in Paris was employed in the plumbing establishment of Spicer & Gilchrist, who were at that time in business in the Elks' Building, now the Masonic Temple. He was a young man of many excellent qualities, and has many acquaintances and friends here, who will sincerely regret to learn of his death.

He is survived by his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gilson, three brothers, Wm. E. and Edwin C. Gilson, of Lexington, and Alvin Gilson, now in France, two sisters, Mrs. J. E. Gilchrist, of Lexington, formerly of Paris, and Mrs. Dwight Parrish, of Lexington.

READ WHAT THE CANDIDATES FOR GOVERNOR SAY.

Our readers will find in this issue the claims of Judge John D. Carroll, of Newcastle, and Dr. H. H. Cherry, of Bowling Green, who are making announcement of their candidacy for Governor. Judge Carroll's announcement will be found on page two, and that of Dr. Cherry on page three. Both are excellent gubernatorial timber, and it will be a hard matter to decide between them. However, THE NEWS will leave that to the voters, only we wanted to call your attention to the cards of these two gentlemen.

ADMINISTRATOR APPOINTED

Mr. James McClure, Cashier of the First National Bank of Paris, was appointed Saturday by County Judge Batterton, in the County Court, as administrator of the estate of the late Mrs. Agnes Jacoby. Mr. McClure accepted the trust, furnishing bond in the sum of $6,000, with J. W. Jacoby and Mr. R. Jacoby as sureties.

Mr. McClure was also appointed by the Court as administrator of the estate of the late John S. Jacoby, furnishing bond in the sum of $3,000, with the same sureties. Charles C. Clark, Wm. Piper and John Steele were named as appraisers of the estate of Mrs. Agnes Jacoby.

IT'S YOUR MOVE!

The Progressive Checker and Chess Club has resumed play for the season at the Y. M. C. A. In the first game of chess played at the Y between William Rule, of the U. S. Marines, San Francisco, who was a guest of relatives, and Mr. Eleazar Daley, the latter was defeated. Sherman Stivers won over H. L. Clark in a series of six games at checkers, winning five and getting one draw. The Club will be in session in the future every Thursday night. A series of interesting games has been arranged for the next bout, to be played between well-known Paris players.

TO RE-ESTABLISH SCHEDULE.

The Kentucky Traction and Terminal Co. announces that, beginning yesterday, January 13, the 4:00 p. m. car from Lexington to Versailles, and the 4:45 p. m. car from Versailles to Lexington, will be put back on until further notice.

County Clerk Pearce Paton issued the following marriage licenses Saturday: William N. Hatfield and Miss Rena B. Collins, George N. Gordon and Miss Rosa P. Fieback.

THE NEWS has learned from a reliable source that Cupid has recovered a great many of the darts with which he pierced loving hearts in 1918, and has refilled his quiver. He recently paid a visit to a Walker Avenue home, where his bow was strung, and a shaft sped home to the heart of a handsome Paris girl, while a short time after one of his aides sent a dart into the heart of a Carlisle boy. "It is said" that there will be a wedding soon.

The Louisville Courier-Journal has the following reference under the heading, "Nurse, Doctor, Cupid, Wedding," to the recent marriage in Louisville of Miss Dorcas Hampton Usery, of Paris, Ky., are somewhere in the United States on their honeymoon.

"When the call came a year ago for young women to volunteer for Red Cross nursing Miss Usery came to Louisville and entered the Norton Infirmary to learn nursing. She met Dr. Gunn; love, courtship and marriage followed naturally.

"Mrs. Gunn is the daughter of Dr. W. C. Usery and a niece of Mrs. J. H. Thompson and Mrs. Volney Ferguson, of the same city."

PAYNE-BEHLER

—Miss Katherine Payne and Mr. Harold Beheler, both of Lexington, were married in Lexington, at the parsonage of St. Peter's church, recently, by Rev. Fryeberg. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Beheler, formerly of Paris. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Payne, of Lexington.

The ceremony was performed in the presence of the members of the two families. The attendants were Miss Willie King and Mr. Ernest Beheler, brother of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Beheler will go to Florida to reside.

REDHEFFER-HELM.

—Mr. James Helm, well-known Lexington business man, and Miss Clara L. Redheffer, of Chicago, were married last week at the home of the bride, in the latter city. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Helm left for a trip to Dallas, Tex., and other points in the South.

This is the second matrimonial venture for the groom. His first wife was formerly Miss Jennie Hanson, of Paris and Lexington. She was a member of the Paris Public School faculty for several years, and after moving to Lexington, established and conducted the Jennie Hanson Helm magazine agency, which secured a national reputation. The bride is a sister of Mr. Raymond Redheffer, vice-president of the First and Second Security banks of Chicago.

CLAY-ROSEBERRY.

—Beautifully engraved paneled invitations have been issued by Mrs. Sidney G. Clay, announcing the approaching marriage of her daughter, Miss Alice Rogers Clay, to Lieut. Hiram Roseberry. The wedding will take place at eight o'clock, Wednesday evening, January 22, in the Christian church, in this city. The invitations are worded as follows:

"Mrs. Sidney Green Clay requests the honor of your presence at the marriage of her daughter, Alice Rogers to Lieutenant Hiram Montgomery Roseberry on Wednesday, the twenty-second of January, one thousand, nine hundred and nineteen, at eight o'clock in the evening, Christian Church, Paris, Kentucky."

Enclosed with invitation is the card bearing the words, "Under the Ribbon."

STATE PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD TO MEET IN LEXINGTON.

BOURBON COUNTY MAN BURNED TO DEATH IN LEXINGTON.

The Synod of Kentucky Presbyterians of the United States will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church, in Lexington. The Moderator, Rev. W. Y. Davis, will preach the opening sermon at 2:30 o'clock.

Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock Dr. Dunbar Ogden, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church in Louisville, will preach. Dr. Ogden is one of the most interesting and eloquent pastors of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church.

Acceptances coming in to W. K. Massee, chairman, indicate a large gathering of pastors and laymen.

Dr. Ernest Thacker, who recently came to Lexington as pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will preach Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The Synod is entertained by the First and Maxwell Street Presbyterians, and the women of the two congregations will serve meals at noon and evening to the visitors.

During Tuesday the conference will discuss general business, elect a new moderator and receive the annual report of the churches and seminaries of the synod.

Wednesday the time of the conference will be devoted to receiving the reports of schools and orphanages and receiving the committees on evangelism will also be taken up by the conference. The Sunday school meeting of the conference will be conducted Wednesday by Thos. D. Talbot.

There is no discord like that caused by the fellow who burst into song when he can't find the key.

Mr. Stephens is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Smith, of Shawhan, and two sons, Gay Stephens, now in the U. S. army, and Orie Stephens, who is residing in Pennsylvania. He had been a resident of Lexington for about twelve years, having moved there from Shawhan at a time when there was a great demand for carpenters. The body was brought to Shawhan for interment.

Virginia, 6-year-old daughter of W. E. Atkinson, manager of the R. J. Reynolds tobacco plant, at Maysville, was badly burned when her dress caught fire from an open front gas stove. Her father was also badly burned in extinguishing the flames.

Miss Georgia Baxter, a graduate nurse at the Good Samaritan Hospital, at Lexington, was severely burned below the waist when her dress caught fire from a stove in the bath room at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lyne, 350 East High street, who has been ill.

Mrs. Fletcher Morris, who lives near Mt. Moriah, in Nicholas county, had a narrow escape from being burned to death. While preparing some feed for chickens before an open grate her clothes caught fire. Her husband, who was in the barn near by, heard her screams and went to her assistance. He wrapped her in quilts and extinguished the flames.
